

Spring has sprung at City Hall! The City of Fulshear Parks & Recreation Commission presents a fun, entertaining and educational event for the whole family!

Mad Hatter

Days of April

April 20th, 4-6pm

- “Mad Hatter” competition for best hat worn by owner and dog. Three winners will be chosen. Be the maddest hatter and WIN!
- Native bird art exhibit by award-winning local photographer Kevin Malo
- Exquisitely detailed henna hand and face painting by Hema
- Exciting scavenger hunt (4-4:15pm)
- Inflatable slide for endless fun
- Engaging nature exhibits from our friendly Texas Master Naturalists
- North Fort Bend Water Authority Conservation Truck’s interactive educational system to fascinate all ages
- Mouth-watering Cousins Maine Lobster food truck
- Delicious Anna's Gourmet Greek food truck
- Grow your own flowers with Parks Commission Texas native flower seed packet giveaways
- One-of-a-kind bird houses and feeders
- CenterPoint Energy tree education and fun giveaways.

Come out to Fulshear City Hall and enjoy the fun!

